There is absolutely no doubt that verses 9:128 and 9:129 do not belong to Quran. The evidence for these verses being false and added to Quran after Muhammad's death is overwhelming. (For more information, please refer to Appendix 24, 'Tampering With the Word of God,' "QURAN: THE FINAL TESTAMENT—Authorized English Version," Translated From the Original by Rashad Khalifa, Ph.D.) These false verses have been suspect for more than 1300 years, as documented in such classical references as Bukhari, Al-Itqaan by Suyuti, Ibn Katheer, and others. Some of the findings in these documents indicate that Muhammad's cousin Ali knew that these false verses have been added to Quran, and that he was going to do something about it (See S.P. Issue of November 1987). He actually did something about it. He said his son Hussein bought to remove these false verses from Quran. They did not sign for power as announced by their enemies who killed them and many others who supported them.

The injection of the two false verses 9:128 and 9:129 was in accordance with God's will. These verses demonstrated the major function of Quran's mathematical system, and proved that no falsehood could or can enter into Quran, as promised by Quran, and find all the verse numbers in these suras, that are a multiple of either miracle of Quran, without the false verses of Sura 9. It is also interesting to note that there are 771 numbers for this sura, and is given at the rightmost column of the table. 228 128, 129, 256, 238 171 i

The resultant number is 771 for this sura, and is given at the rightmost column of the table. 228 128, 129, 256, 238 171 i

If we look at history, we see that the Arabs were superior in science and math, and they were powerful rulers for about 200 years after the prophet Muhammad through whom Quran, the Final Scripture, was revealed. That was the period in which the majority of the Arabs were still upholding Quran alone for religious guidance. Then came Bukhari and several other idol worshipers who collected volumes and volumes of "sayings" and "deeds" attributed to Muhammad, against his will and against God's commandments in Quran:

"We also set up enemies against every prophet, human and jinn devils, who inspire in each other fancy words, in order to deceive...You shall disregard them and their falsehoods. . . ." (3:123-124)

The false verses also resulted in an awesome miracle in that there is a total being a multiple of 19, when the sum of the verses at the rightmost column 248 128, 129, 256, 238 171 i

INTELLIGENCE

Intelligence is formally defined as "the ability to learn, to understand, and to cope." Each creature is endowed with a kind of intelligence befitting its nature. God endowed us with minds so that we can use common sense, reason, and logic to adequately adapt to our world and ultimately realize that God exists, that He is the One Lord and Master of creation (30:54).

"He gave you the hearing, the sight, and the brains, that you may be appreciative" (16:76).

In themselves, memory and sensory perception do not constitute intelligence. Animals can surpass man in perception do not constitute intelligence. Animals can surpass man in perception, with which they do not see, ears with which they do not hear. They are like animals; in fact, they are far worse; they are totally unaware" (7:179).

"The worst creatures in the sight of God are the deaf and dumb, who do not understand" (8:22).

Most people have a narrow view of what intelligence is. They think it is reflected in performance on achievement and aptitude tests, popularity, career choice, and material success. For the misguided majority, another sign of intelligence is "not depending on religion or God." The majority individuals who discard God's guidance reduces the iniquity because they are worse—they are like animals; in fact, they are far worse; they are totally unaware" (8:22).
